WILHELMINA'S ROUGH TRIP.

The Wilhelmina arrived this morning from San Francisco twenty-four hours late. Practically all the way the Wilhelmina was in the midst of rough weather, which was the cause of the delay.

There was a big list of passengers—102 in the cabins and fifteen in the steerage. The majority of the cabin passengers were tourists. The others were the members of Harry Corson Clarke's excellent theatrical company and a few returning kamaainas.

In her hold there were 2880 tons of cargo for Honolulu, all of a general nature, said Purser Drew this morning. There were 430 sacks of mail, ninety packages of express matter and ten automobiles. For Hilo there are 816 tons of cargo.

The Wilhelmina will leave for Hilo tomorrow night at five o'clock.

CLAUDINE FROM HILO.

The Claudine arrived this morning from Hilo via Maui with two mules, ten cords of wood, twelve sacks of corn, thirty-one sacks of potatoes, two horses, thirty bundles of ohia lumber, ten crates of chickens, nine hundred feet of lumber, seventy-three pigs, twenty-five sacks of beans, twenty-nine packages of hides, one hundred packages of sundries.

HALL WITH SUGAR.

WATERFRONT IN MOURNING.

Today the waterfront is mourning for Captain Sanders. All along the front there were flags at halfmast. The Cleveland, on whose bridge Captain Sanders passed away, had her flag at halfmast, so had the Claudine, the Maui and several others, as well as a number of buildings. The one topic along the waterfront was the late Captain Sanders, and on every hand general regret was expressed at his sudden death.

COMEDIAN CLARKE HAS ARRIVED

Harry Corson Clarke and his company of thirteen players arrived in the steamer Wilhelmina this morning. Mr. Clarke expressed himself as most eager to renew old acquaintances and once more to enjoy the charms of Honolulu after an absence of fourteen years.

The comedian says that he hopes to open at the Royal Hawaiian Opera House on Monday evening. The bill will be "What Happened to Jones." It may be recalled that Mr. Clarke was the original "Jones" and starred in the play for five years, making a fortune for himself and the author.

Among the plays that will be presented during the comedian's engagement here are "Lost Twenty-four Hours," "Why Smith Left Home," "Mr. Foster of Chicago," "My Wife's Husband," "His Absent Boy" and others.

Sir Herbert Tree, the British actor, will begin a music hall engagement in London, thus being the first titled actor to appear in vaudeville.
